

(Teacher may read questions and answer choices if needed)

- 1) What is choking?
 - a) Choking occurs when something gets stuck in the throat/trachea and the person can no longer breathe.
 - b) Choking occurs when someone can no longer speak to you.
 - c) Choking occurs when someone takes too big a bite of a hot dog.

- 2) The _____ Maneuver® is the easiest method for saving a choking victim. Choose the correct spelling?
 - a) Himelick
 - b) Heimlick
 - c) Hindlich
 - d) Heimlich

- 3) Choking can be fatal.
 - a) True
 - b) False

- 4) These parts of the body are all involved when someone chokes.
 - a) Throat or Trachea
 - b) Vocal Cords
 - c) Stomach
 - d) Lungs
 - e) Heart

- 5) How do you know if someone is choking?
 - a) Their fingernails and lips may be turning blue.
 - b) They cannot cough very hard, if at all.
 - c) They cannot speak.
 - d) They may be clutching their throat.
 - e) None of the above

(OVER)

Name _____ Grade _____

(Teacher may read questions and answer choices if needed)

- 6) If you think someone is choking what is the first thing you should do?
- a) Shout for help and tell someone to call 911.
 - b) Immediately begin the Heimlich Maneuver.
 - c) Ask the person if they are choking.
- 7) Place the Heimlich Maneuver® steps in the correct order (number from 1 to 4):
- _____ Make a fist with the thumb side of your hand touching just above the person's belly button. Wrap your other hand on top of your fist.
 - _____ Repeat thrusting motions until the object is cleared and dislodged from the throat.
 - _____ Position yourself behind the person who is in trouble and place your arms around their waist. They might be sitting or standing at the time.
 - _____ Thrust your fist upward and inward into the upper stomach area. This motion forces air out your windpipe to dislodge the obstructing object.
- 8) The Heimlich Maneuver® can be performed on yourself by positioning yourself behind a chair or against the edge of a table.
- a) True
 - b) False
- 9) If a person falls unconscious while choking you can still unblock the airway by using the Heimlich Maneuver®.
- a) True
 - b) False
- 10) Once the Heimlich Maneuver® has been performed and the victim can breathe, they should always go to see their doctor right away to be sure they haven't damaged their throat.
- a) True
 - b) False

Name _____ Grade _____