EVERYDAY HERO STORIES:

A Life Saved

The Heimlich Maneuver is easy for anyone to learn and perform- no matter their age.

Nine-year-old Emily Ogle saved the life of her choking classmate. Kuper Stevens was eating lunch when he choked on a breadstick.

Ogle knew what to do and performed the Heimlich! She dislodged the breadstick and saved Stevens.

Kuper Stevens and Emily Ogle

Ogle's father taught her the maneuver when she was seven-years-old. She remembered how to use and it saved her friend!
